

Burgess Sports
Recruitment Policy
1 April 2018

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Effective and consistent recruitment practices are essential to ensure that all applicants are treated fairly and with equality of opportunity so that costly recruitment mistakes are avoided.
- 1.2 The recruitment process must result in the selection of the most suitable person for the job in respect of skills, experience and qualifications. To this end, the Company will recruit candidates who are most suited to the position in question and comply with its Equality and Diversity Policy at all times. The nationality of the most suitable candidate will have no bearing on whether or not he/she is selected for the post, subject to the requirement to meet the resident labour market test where applicable and eligibility for sponsorship where necessary.
- 1.3 This Policy defines the principles that the Company considers important in the recruitment process and aims to ensure that consistency and good practice is applied across the Company.

2. Equality and Diversity in Recruitment

- 2.1 It is against the Company's Equality and Diversity Policy to discriminate either directly or indirectly on the grounds of race, nationality, ethnic origin, gender, marital status, pregnancy, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, ethnicity, cultural or religious beliefs. Reasonable adjustments to the recruitment process will be made to ensure that no applicant is disadvantaged because of his/her disability.
- 2.2 All employees are required to comply with the requirements of the Equality and Diversity Policy at every stage of the recruitment process including production of job descriptions, advertising material, instructions given to recruitment agencies, shortlisting of applications, interviewing, selection decisions and offers of employment.
- 2.3 All policies and procedures reflect our commitment to achieving and maintaining equal opportunities within the workplace. It is the responsibility of every employee to monitor continually and evaluate formal and informal practices and procedures to ensure that they do not directly or indirectly discriminate against any individual or group of society.
- 2.4 The Company will treat all job applicants in the same way at each stage of the recruitment process, and no assumptions will be made on the basis of, for example, appearance or a foreign name. There will be no assumption that a foreign national or someone from an ethnic minority has no right to work in the UK.
- 2.5 Any employee who is found to be discriminating in any way during the recruitment process will be subject to the disciplinary procedure and may be liable to dismissal.

3. Monitoring Equality and Diversity in Recruitment

- 3.1 In order for us to monitor the effectiveness of the Recruitment and Equality and Diversity Policy it is necessary that all candidates complete the Equality and Diversity Monitoring Form. Any data which is collected regarding gender and ethnic origins will be collected solely for the purpose of monitoring equal opportunity and will be held confidentially by the Company and protected from misuse.

- 4.4 The Job Description Form should be given to all candidates prior to interview to enable them to prepare adequately for the interview.
- 4.5 Particular care must be taken when producing job descriptions to ensure that unreasonable requirements are not placed on the job holder which cannot be objectively justified and may unfairly disadvantage certain groups e.g. women, ethnic minorities or disabled persons.
